FACTS AND FIGURES FOR THE TAX PAYER

Twenty Cents a Year for Each Inhabitant Will Cover This County's Share of the Military Debt---Democratic Bug-a-boo Punctured.

The Democratic campaign committee are making a big noise over the alleged increase in taxes in Colorado as a result of military debt incurred in suppressing rioting and in bragging about peace in Cripple Creek and Telluride.

To hear them talk and to read their posters one would think that all the property in Colorado was about to be confiscated to pay this military debt.

They are making an especial play to the farmers of the state in order to make them believe that they may as well go out of business when their tax bills come in.

But as usual the facts and figures entirely, completely and absolutely prove the falsity of the Democratic statements.

Here are the facts.

The Democrats declare that the military debt is $1,000,000; the fact is that the total debt is $760,000

The Democrats say the farmers' share of the debt is $760,000; the statistics show that farm land and improvements in Colorado are one-fourth of the total collection of property in this state, therefore one-fourth of the military debt is $190,000

EL PASO COUNTY.

Coming down to El Paso county, we find that the valuation of property of this county is one-fourteenth of the entire valuation of the state. One-fourteenth of the military debt would be..... $54,000

Taxpayers in El Paso county 11,000

Hence the burden upon each taxpayer would be less than..... $5

Or, to put it another way, suppose the military debt were cared for by a bond issue running 20 years, as is customary in such cases. Principal and interest for 20 years would amount to about..... $190,000

For each resident of El Paso county, upon the basis of 38,000 population, the total cost would be less than..... $1

OR TWENTY CENTS A YEAR.

This is the actual fact of the case and disposes of the Democratic bugaboo of confiscation of property.

Twenty cents a year.

Is there any citizen who is not willing to pay this sum in order that life, liberty and property may be made secure and that law and order may be upheld in the great Commonwealth of Louisiana?

HILL'S NEW ISSUES

Condemns Government by Injunction and Favors Election of Senators by Direct Vote of People.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 13.—David B. Hill injected a new argument into the Democratic campaign here tonight—a straightforward condemnation of "Government by injunction" and the demand for a law providing a jury trial to persons held in contempt of court for the same kind of a contempt order of a violation of a restraining order of a federal judge. The Democratic national platform sustains this position, although in guarded terms.

Wheeling was selected by the New York politician as the place to emphasize and make a national issue of this point because of its varied industries in giving employment to artisans of many vocations and also because the injunction has been used here in labor disputes in a number of instances. The announcement, which was accompanied by a full explanation, was greeted with tremendous applause.

History of the Question.

Mr. Hill recited the history of the use of the injunction in labor disputes and the attempts of Congress to legislate on the subject. He said:

He told of securing the passage of a bill through the senate in 1898 to this end; he then recited the Republican opposition in the house since that time which was the ground for making the issue one to be called to question a party issue to be called to the front at this time. He declared that a man had the right to quit work when and where he pleased.

"The position of the Democratic party upon this subject is right," he concluded. "A Democratic national victory will mean the enactment of the measure mentioned and government by injunction, as here explained, will no longer exist."

Direct Vote for Senator.

Another new point as a Democratic argument was also made by Mr. Hill, the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

Wheeling's reception to Henry G. Davis and party of campaigners made it necessary to hold two meetings tonight. A large circus tent was not adequate to accommodate the gathering and Carroll club hall was hastily secured and as quickly filled, leaving many persons unable to get in.

The speakers were put to work in both places and interchanged so that the audiences heard Mr. Davis, Mr. Hill, Senators Bailey and Daniel and ex-Governor White of Maryland.

National issues were discussed by all and the enthusiasm kept even with the size of the audiences.

Previous to the meetings, marching clubs, armed with torches and red fire paraded the streets and an elaborate escort was furnished to the candidate from his hotel to the meetings.

The Davis special arrived in Wheeling at 4 o'clock, the program of stops having been carried out satisfactorily. It will remain here tonight.

ACCIDENT ON GOLF GREENS WILL COST BOY HIS LIFE

Clifford Beach Is Victim of Explosion---Dropped Match Into Oil Barrel Filled With Gas.

CLIFFORD BEACH
Photo Taken When He Was 15 Years Old.

Clifford E. Beach of 30 East Kiowa street, was fatally injured in an accident on the golf links of the Town and Gown club yesterday afternoon, shortly after 4 o'clock.

The young man has been employed as gardener on the club's golf links since Tuesday and was at work sprinkling the tees after the fourth green had been finished on an oil barrel and was waiting for another to be brought from the club house. While leaning upon the empty barrel he lighted a cigarette and either held it over the barrel or unconsciously dropped the burning match into the bung-hole. The barrel was filled with accumulated gas which exploded with terrific force. Beach was struck on the head, his skull fractured and the frontal bone which protects the brain shattered.

Frightful Sight.

The explosion blew the top of the barrel straight up and it caught him on the right side of the head, making a hole that was frightful to look at, a piece of the scalp was found several rods away. The right side of his hat was cut off by flying wood and iron hoops. He lay unconscious and as silent as death.

The golf players who hurried to the unfortunate youth at the frantic call of the brother were appalled and sickened at the sight with which they were greeted. They could do nothing and were nearly wild because of their helplessness.

The only one near the unfortunate man at the time was his brother, George Beach. An employe of the Godfrey ranch also witnessed the accident and hurried to the assistance of the brother. These two summoned the nearby golf players and as soon as he was [illegible] and medical aid was immediately summoned from the city. Drs. Mayhew and Webb responded.

Removed Frontal Lobe.

The ambulance was called and the injured man taken to the St. Francis hospital, where Drs. Mayhew and Hutchings examined him and found the right frontal lobe disorganized, also small pieces of bone lodged in the brain. The former was removed and the wound put in the best shape possible but no hope was held out for recovery.

When the ambulance arrived at the club house with the injured man the mother and brother were there waiting to see him and gave way to grief. "Can't I see my son," exclaimed the weeping mother. "No lady, it is best that you should stay away for the present," answered the policeman in charge of the ambulance. "Is he still alive?" was the mother's next question. "Yes, but that's about all," was the discouraging answer. "This will kill me," she cried as her friends led her home.

Beach has been working at the golf links but three days, being a substitute for the regular gardener who has gone to St. Louis for a short vacation. His work was of an experimental nature as the club has been using oil on the green for quite a couple of days, and the young man, doubtless did not realize the danger of smoking around the barrel.

In speaking of the sad affair yesterday evening, Mr. W. W. Campbell of the Town and Gown Golf club, said: "It was an awful shock to the members of the club who hurried to the scene in response to the poor boy's brother's appeal for help. The accident was the result of no one's carelessness that can be attributable in any way to the club management, of course, but we were cast into a gloom ever since it occurred."

Supported His Mother.

Clifford E. Beach was the second son of Mrs. J. C. Platt and he came to Colorado Springs 12 years ago. He has a number of Boston and Cambridge connections. He supported his mother, as has two brothers, George and Henry, both of whom live here with their mother and step-father, J. C. Platt. The boy's father died in Boston in 1893 and Clifford had been working ever since, supporting his mother and brothers in every way possible.

At 3 o'clock this morning Clifford Beach was still alive, but death was hourly expected.

NOTHING MORE THAN SALOONS

Mayor Requested to Investigate "Clubs".

LEAGUE TAKES ACTION

CHARGES MADE THAT STATE CHARTER IS BEING USED TO EVADE LIQUOR LAWS OF COLORADO SPRINGS.

Mayor Ira Hutrie yesterday received a communication from the Anti-Saloon league requesting him to investigate so-called "social" clubs in this city.

The communication followed the action taken by the league a few days ago when this matter was discussed. It was then decided to ask the mayor to take steps against the clubs.

The latter charges that these clubs are nothing more nor less than saloons with a bar, which, if not public, is as close to being a public bar as is possible in this city.

Mayor Harris stated yesterday that he had received the communication in the morning mail but had not taken any action on it as yet. He has it under consideration and will make an investigation into the charges before taking any steps.

It is supposed the mayor will order the police department to thoroughly investigate the clubs mentioned and report to him at an early date, but up to late night the mayor had not communicated with Chief Reynolds on the subject.

The movement against clubs, which are believed to be using the state charter as a means of evading the local liquor laws, is well started and organized here, and if such clubs exist in this city it is probable that the next week or two will find police action being taken against them.

DARTMOUTH EARL IS INTERVIEWED

Bruish Nobleman Recalls His Impression of Denver 31 Years Ago---Here With Countess and Lady Legge.

Colorado Springs is now entertaining a real earl, one of the most celebrated of the British aristocracy.

He is the Earl of Dartmouth, and in company with the Countess of Dartmouth and their daughter, Lady Dorothy Legge, and a retinue of servants, arrived at the Antlers hotel shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

As a real earl he is not only in name but in appearance as well, and he has a pleasing and courteous address. He has bright, mild blue eyes, which immediately put one at ease. His complexion is extremely red, both from exposure and by nature, and he is slightly past middle age.

The party is in this country on a pleasure and sightseeing trip, and the earl is not here on an official visit. They are enjoying the trip immensely, and the earl expresses his impressions of American scenery with the word "fine." The party has just come from Yellowstone park, where they have been camping out and enjoying the glorious beauties of that region in spite of some rather disagreeable weather.

Here Until Monday.

They landed in Canada some months ago, and have been traveling through the [illegible] country, spending some time in Vancouver, and on the Pacific coast. They spent two hours in Denver yesterday morning, coming direct to Colorado Springs, where they will remain until next Monday.

"I was in Denver 31 years ago," said the earl to a Gazette reporter last night. "What a changed appearance it presents. Then it was nothing but a rough, dirty little town. Now it is one of the best and prettiest I have seen."

The earl's first visit to Denver was on a trip around the world, when he came to the United States from the east having visited Japan, China and other countries of the orient. Though the transcontinental railway had been completed, "traveling was not then as pleasant as it is now, there were many annoyances and delays in making connections."

Here to See Scenery.

The distinguished visitors have given over several days to this region that they may take in all its far-famed scenic attractions. They have made no definite plans for their stay as yet, but intend to see all the scenery that they can. The guest yesterday afternoon around the hotel veranda.

Next Monday they will leave for St. Louis, where ten days will be given to the Louisiana Purchase exposition. From there they will continue the trip eastward to Boston, and before sailing for England on November 12, will visit New York, Washington and other eastern cities.

Patron of Dartmouth College.

The Earl of Dartmouth is the sixth patron of Dartmouth college in England, now famous as one of the leading institutions of that nation, next to Oxford and Cambridge. It was about 175 years ago that the second Earl of Dartmouth became the first patron of this college, which was started to teach the little aristocrats of England how to read and write. Each succeeding earl of this noted house has likewise become a patron and the one who is now sojourning in Colorado Springs is [illegible] the [illegible] patron.

The earl's son is at present in the orient, arriving in Japan next Monday. He has made a visit there to go on to New Zealand in time for the fishing season, which is now at hand.

JAPANESE CLAIM A DECISIVE VICTORY

Russians Said to Be in Full Retreat After Two Days' Heavy Fighting With the Enemy in Hot Pursuit

Headquarters of the Japanese Left Army in the Field, Oct. 13, 5 p. m., via Fusan, Oct. 14.—The victory of the Japanese left army today was a decisive one. The Russians fought bravely and several times attempted counter-attacks. The Japanese repulsed them every time and continued their steady advance. The left wing of the army threatened to encompass the Russian right, compelling the Russians to retreat. The Japanese artillery, including the batteries captured from the Russians, did their usual splendid work in shelling the trenches and the retreating Russians.

Japanese Attacked.

Field Headquarters of the Japanese Left Army, Oct. 13, 5 p. m., via Fusan, Oct. 14.—The left army made an advance for eight and early this morning occupied a position close to a village and field occupied by the Russians.

The Japanese attacked along the whole line, driving the Russians out of the position to which they retired yesterday.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the Russians were retreating northward in disorder. The Japanese cavalry is in pursuit. Russian battery.

The Japanese are still pursuing and shelling. Losses heavy.

ENTHUSIASM AT THE REPUBLICAN RALLY

Judge W. S. Morris Heartily Applauded in His Defense of Governor Peabody and Argument for National Ticket.

A very enthusiastic crowd of ladies and gentlemen greeted Judge W. S. Morris last night at the Republican Roosevelt club. The distinguished speaker was introduced by President J. F. Jackson.

Judge Morris began with a vindication of Governor Peabody's administration. "The issue of this campaign," said the speaker, "is not so much a political as it is a business question.

"If the Republican party continues to hold sway for the next ten years, this country will be the greatest, most prosperous and most powerful country in the world."

In a glowing tribute to Roosevelt the speaker grew eloquent and elicited tremendous applause. His closing remarks were highly effective and rendered in the dramatic, creating a strong and great impression.

On next Tuesday night there will be a grand rally at the Tavern Opera house, when Messrs. Burns and Richardson of Chicago will deliver addresses on the labor question.

Committees were appointed to meet the speakers at Colorado Springs and escort them to their entertainment.

F. F. Schreiber was appointed chairman.

U. and a member of the Knights of Labor. Both gentlemen reside in Chicago.

Mr. Burns was at one time a Democratic member of the Illinois legislature. He was formerly a railway engineer and stood so high as to hold the office of vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

The rates for the Republicans next to that at the Opera house is not big enough for the crowd that is sure to attend the meeting. A band parade will precede the meeting. The last sad rites over the remains of Frank Van Pelt, who lost his life in an unprovoked gunfight last week, were performed at the First Baptist church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Dorsey Hyde read a portion of the burial service and the congregation sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Pall bearers were then chosen from the assembled lodge companies to [illegible] and finally to Evergreen cemetery. The pall bearers were Jay Greenwood, Nathan Harlow, James Isbey, Richard Barnes, Edward Jackson and Thomas Kershaw.

Honor headed the cortege, followed by the members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Knights of the Golden Eagle and Degree of Honor, the latter having charge of the family, followed in carriages.

BIG DISPLAY OF VAN BRIGGLE WARE

More than 100 New Pieces ($1,000 Worth) Placed on Display and Sale at Foltz & Hardy's Today—30 to 50 per cent off the Former Prices.

By a special arrangement with the Briggle potteries, an even larger display than ever before of Van Briggle wares will be made at Foltz & Hardy's beginning today.

A hundred new pieces amounting to more than a thousand dollars in value will be added. Some of these pieces are right in the Van Briggle tradition, others have been reserved by the potteries for exhibition purposes and that have never been shown to a salesroom before will be included.

Owing to the great demand for Van Briggle ware since it has become known that it secured the gold medal at St. Louis, it has been decided to continue the sale so long as the stock now on hand lasts, quantities unlimited can be had.

This is without doubt a rare opportunity for art patrons and collectors to secure good examples of one of the finest art wares in the world at a very low price.

The Christmas season is so close at hand that many people are taking advantage of the special prices to buy many gifts for friends. In fact, what Colorado Springs man can not remember friends here that have received the gold medal of art ware in the world?

The prices range from 50c to $50 per piece and are less than it has always sold for.

EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY

Kaufman's Big Store Held Successful Celebration Yesterday and Made a Great Hit.

Certainly it was a master stroke of business sagacity which led the management of Kaufman's large establishment to celebrate the eighth anniversary of the store's existence by a bargain day rush yesterday, in lieu of the usual distribution of handsome souvenirs.

The wisdom of resorting to the premium to per cent store economy was apparent in the happy crowd that thronged every department and bought fully selected goods, novelties, necessary apparel or additions to their household appointments.

Five times the selling space is now required, which demonstrates the prosperity attained in eight years by a cash basis and goods always marked in plain figures. A suggestion of carnival was in the decorations of bright-hued leaves painted by Jack Frost's fingers. Potted palms assisted in the [illegible] of every department of the latest fashions, and cut flowers by Barnes' orchestra, both afternoon and evening gave color to the notable occasion.

Mr. Lyle Dix, the expert window dresser and advertising manager, was kept busy receiving congratulations [illegible]

Especially noticeable was the fourth floor, which was in attendance that [illegible] the whole afternoon, so crowded the stairways.

A party black basket, with assortment of white provisions, trimmed with gilt braid and ribbons, was captured with a surprising variety of black novelties, while other [illegible] were remembered by the buyers in opera hats [illegible]

The grandiloquent caption, a splendid result of working harmony for months, [illegible] was [illegible] as well as the [illegible] Kaufman's store. The [illegible] is found on the first floor, while the basement, in charge of Mr. Richard Todd, is used for the display of queensware, glass and tin. Boys' furnishings are on the second floor, and very appropriately the third floor, illustrating the extensive and complete stock offered by Kaufman's popular store.

The work that the street improvement is now doing on the Hillside called forth favorable comment, with the idea that the good work be continued.

It's surprising how quickly children respond to Scott's Emulsion. It contains just the element of nourishment their little bodies need. They thrive on it.

Even a few drops in the baby's bottle have a noticeable effect for good. Nothing better than Scott's Emulsion for growing children.

DEMOCRATS OPEN THE CAMPAIGN

C. J. HUGHES SPEAKS AT CRIPPLE CREEK BUT HE VERY CAREFULLY AVOIDED STATE ISSUES.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 13.—The Cripple Creek Opera house was well filled this evening to celebrate the firing of the first campaign gun of the Democratic party. However, Republican buttons were very conspicuous on the lapels of the coats of a large number of the audience.

After parading the streets with a brass band for an hour before the meeting, C. J. Hughes, the principal speaker of the evening, was escorted from the National hotel to the Opera house. A number of prominent Democrats occupied the stage.

Knox Burton, the chairman of the Democratic central committee, introduced the Hon. Tully Scott as chairman of the meeting who after a few words of greeting to the audience introduced Mr. C. J. Hughes.

In a two-hour talk the speaker strictly avoided local issues which the larger portion of the audience had come to hear and which people of the district are most interested in. Instead he delivered a tirade on the trusts and the great war establishment of the Republican party, however, admitting that Roosevelt has been indorsed by the leading financial men of the country.

REPUBLICANS WILL RALLY IN VICTOR

WILL LISTEN TO THE OPEN MOUTHED ROOSTER OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 13.—A large number of the local Republicans are planning to attend the Republican meeting ... Victor this evening. Congressman James B. Belford will be the principal speaker of the evening.

It is understood that the last year's history of the district will be the main subject of his address when he will touch on the deportation which was resorted to in this camp for ridding it of the agitators and criminals connected with the Western Federation of Miners. Mr. Belford is perhaps the most forceful public speaker in the state, never hesitating for words when expressing his opinion on any subject.

Sheriff Bell and several local candidates for offices on the Republican ticket spent today on a campaigning trip in the northwestern end of the county and taking in the big political gathering which took place in Florissant this afternoon, where some good sound Republican speeches were made.

HEINZE DEMOCRATS ARE SHUT OUT

MONTANA SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST SO-CALLED "ANTI-TRUST" TICKETS IN SILVER BOW COUNTY.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 13.—The supreme court today held, the "Walsworth ... & Silver Bow county ... regular. The effect is to shut out the so-called Heinze Democrats of that county from a place on the ticket under the designation "Democrat." Butte is in Silver Bow county. The secretary of state, George M. Hartt, was today served with a writ of mandamus from the supreme court restraining him from placing the "Anti-Trust" Democratic and "Anti-Trust Republican" tickets, the so-called Heinze tickets, on the official state ballot. The writ was made returnable Saturday, October 15.

The Anti-Trust Democrats have indorsed the Democratic candidates for electors and the entire state ticket.

The Anti-Trust Republicans have indorsed the Republican candidates for electors, Joseph M. Dixon, (Rep.) for congress and the Democratic state ticket. The Republicans bring the proceedings to prevent the "anti-trusters" ... placing ... on the official ballot on the ground that neither party held a state convention, and that no candidates were named by their state committees.

The state Republican committee today brought proceedings in the supreme court to compel the secretary of state to place upon the official ballot the name of Albert J. Galen, for attorney general, which was omitted through an oversight.

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period how to avoid pain and suffering and remove the cause by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To Young Women:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds.

"If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that was the only medicine which helped me any. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—Miss Agnes Miller, 28 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.

The monthly sickness reflects the condition of a woman's health. Anything unusual at that time should have prompt and proper attention. Fifty thousand letters from women prove that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regulates menstruation and makes those periods painless.

READ WHAT MISS LINDBECK SAYS:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has greatly benefited me. I will tell you how I suffered. My trouble was painful menstruation. I felt as each month drew by that I was getting worse. I had severe bearing-down pains in my back and groin.

"A friend advised me to try Mrs. Pinkham's medicine. I did so and am now free from all pain during my periods."—Jessie C. Lindbeck, 1901 6th Street, Rockford, Ill.

MINERS FIGHTING FIRE UNDERGROUND

Acre of Coal Burned at Danville Mine—Heroic Means Employed to Get Flames Under Control.

An acre of coal land between the Danville and the Curtis mines north of this city is on fire.

The fire is probably 40 feet underground and has been raging for three days. Yesterday was the first time it reached serious proportions and the extent of the fire was not appreciated until a part of the surface caved in and allowed the smoke to pour through the loose earth.

The men at the Danville and Curtis mines have been fighting the fire fiercely, and yesterday had to take [illegible] dug holes to the north where the fire and depositing dynamite in the holes and fired it off and thus caused the earth to fall in and [illegible]

The fire was under control last evening and it was hoped to have it out today.

The Curtis [illegible] where the men were [illegible] Monday [illegible] on account of the fire supposed by reason of the fire. It is great however, as can easily be appreciated when it is stated that an acre of valuable coal was burned underground and the earth had to be blown down on top of it to put the fire out, or at least efforts to check the flames being unsuccessful.

The fire is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion of coal dust in the mines of the Danville mine. The mines north of the city are free from coal dust. which causes many disasters in the coal mines. This is the first instance of fire accident of such a nature in the coal mines north of the city since they were first [illegible] were men. Nobody was injured in this fire.

The smoke pouring through the earth made a novel picture when attracted many to the scene and astonished those who saw it and did not know the cause.

Took Stand Against Polygamy.
Denounced Army Canteen.
Elected Officers.
Submitted Reports.

The closing sessions of the second day's session of the Colorado W. C. T. U. convention were largely devoted to the election of officers. Mrs. Gabrielle A. Hawley of Denver, who for five years has admirably served as president, positively declined renomination and Mrs. Margaret Montgomery of Denver was elected to the office.

Mrs. Hawley was then elected state president at large and later by acclamation honorary president for life. Miss Lena A. Dwight of Boulder, and Mrs. Cora L. White of Denver, who have already efficiently served as corresponding and recording secretaries respectively, were re-elected. Mrs. Agnes M. Quinn of Denver was elected treasurer. Miss Rose Adele Harrison, Pueblo secretary; transfer, Mrs. Nellie Lewkit, Colorado Springs; auditing secretary, L. T. L. Gretch.

Finance committee — Mrs. Katherine Bates, Denver; Mrs. A. E. Connell, Colorado Springs; Mrs. H. A. McAllister, Grand Junction.

Delegates and Guests.

The report of the committee on [illegible] Mrs. L. A. Dwight, chairman, showed that there were 111 accredited delegates present. The personnel of the convention is further increased by the large number of guests in attendance.

The treasurer's report given by the treasurer pro tem, Mrs. Antoinette Quinn, who represented Miss Mamie Spriggs, who was unable to be present, showed the receipts of the year to be $[illegible] and the expenditures exactly balanced and the organization was free from debt.

The Army Canteen.

In reply to a plea from General Frank Reichman, of the department of Colorado, the president was requested to say that the W. C. T. U. approves his efforts in endeavoring to enforce the state laws, and disapproving his efforts to re-establish the army canteen.

The following resolution was also signed by the general officers and will be sent to the members of the United States senate with the information of the convention.

Against Polygamy.

"We, the undersigned citizens of the United States, urge that you lend your heartiest support to such action in the present or shall lead to congressional legislation of such character as shall revive polygamy a crime against the peace and dignity of the United States and shall provide such punishments for the practice as shall be appropriate.

"Believing that an amendment to the constitution of the United States is the only act that can be effective against the crime, by taking the question out of the state courts and placing it in the federal courts, we beseech you to use your influence for such [illegible] amendment."

Most of the reports from the superintendents of departments were deferred until today, but one given, that of Mrs. K. K. Sessler, medal contests, merits special mention. Under her direction 13 contests have been conducted in Colorado the past year, and more than [illegible] have been [illegible] in active.

Some other reports submitted were [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] W. C. T. U. Bulletin, Miss K. M. Cramer; Press Superintendent, Mrs. [illegible] Gregory; Francis Willard Home, Mrs. T. A. Easton; Red Cottage, Miss L. A. Daniels.

SUGGESTS ANOTHER DRAINAGE TUNNEL

Question of Draining South Slope of Bull Hill Now Confronts Mine Owners in That Locality.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 13—Engineer Jacquith, of the El Paso drainage tunnel, said that there is now running through the big bore 4,500 gallons per minute and nearly 2,000 gallons less per minute than when the tunnel was completed. The flow of water at the present time is closely at a rate of 2,500 gallons per minute. At that rate it will take several years before the tunnel has done its work. Mr. Jacquith is of the firm opinion that the same proposition that confronted the mine owners on Raven and Beacon hills and, in fact, on this entire side of the camp now confronts the mine owners who own territory on the south slope of Bull hill. There are many leasing mines of the camp located in this neighborhood that have run for months with water as those on [illegible] and Raven hills had two years ago.

The owners of properties on this side of the camp put up money in proportion to the value of the acreage they held, for the purpose of a drainage tunnel, and it has proved a big success. However, it will be far more costly, and a very much more extensive engineering problem to relieve the mines of Bull hill and that section of their surplus water.

At the present time there is considerable talk as to what will be the best and cheapest mode of draining that section, as it will have to be much lower than the other. As for instance, the Vindicator, Golden Cycle and Independence Consolidated are down over 1,200 feet. It has been proven by surveys that the water in all three of these shafts is at a common level and that all the water comes from the same source, and it only a question of a short while when the mine owners of that section will have to drive a tunnel into the mines of their properties to get rid of the heavy flow of water which is now bothering many of them.
